Renting.

Mr Arch K. Walker gets the Poor House farm for next year agreeing to provide for the paupers and give $170 to the Fiscal court.

H. C. Hamilton has purchased a lot of J. R. Haselden at the corner of Richmond street and Herring avenue. He will erect a cottage at once.

The Ladies Working Society, of the Fork church will give a supper Friday night at the school house near the church. Every body invited.

Correction.

Mr J. R. Mount was appointed chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee, for this county, instead of chairman of the regular Democratic committee, which our types said. Mr W. Gooch is still chairman of the last named Committee.

Rue & Curry sold Thursday for the Almeda Brown heirs their farm of 172 acres on Salt River, 5 miles north west of Harrington, and 140 acres for J. W.
Powell, adjoining the Brown heirs to Rankin Clemens, of Fayette, both at $5 per acre. Possession on Jan 1, 1908

The Cheapest Place.

A well-to-do man in the vicinity of a neighboring town went to a drug store and asked the price of sulphur.
"Ten cents a pound," said Doc. "Isn't that pretty high?" asked the customer.
"Why I can get it of my mail order house for seven cents," said Doc, "and you won't have to pay any freight either."

Wasn't A Mind Reader.

A grocer, of this city, just happened around when a farmer was unloading several boxes filled with groceries, which he had ordered from Chicago department stores.

The grocer asked the farmer the prices of the articles purchased and then told him he could sell just as cheap. The farmer then said: "Is that so? I take the home paper, but you seldom or never advertise, and if you do, you never quote prices on what you have. The Chicago stores advertise. I am not a mind reader."

The Christian Endeavor, of Pleasant Grove, held its regular meeting Sunday evening at 5:30 o'clock at the church, conducted by the Prayer meeting committee, subject, "The Value of Decision." The meeting was opened with prayer by the Pastor. The Scripture lesson was read by Miss Mae Robinson. A paper by Miss Damm on "How Decision Succeeds," also readings by Misses Royston and Simpson, a duet by the Misses Leavell and a talk by the Pastor. The next meeting will be held Sunday morning, immediately after Sunday School. Subject, "Foreign Mission" leader, Miss Mary Wilson. Special music every meeting.

Act Like Hogs.

When one hog gets an ear of corn every other hog will trot along behind and squeal and beg and is ready for a bite but just let that hog get his head fast in crack of a fence and every son of a sow will jump on and help tear him to pieces. Just so it is with men.
As long as a man is prosperous and has plenty of money he can't keep his friends off with a baseball bat. The moment he is unfortunate and his wealth is gone he is not only snubbed by his former friends but they begin to do him all the harm possible. When a man starts down grade the world steps to one side and greases the track.

Oh, Consistency, Where Art Thou.

We read an exchange of a certain editor who had a long and carefully prepared article on the importance of patronizing home merchants rather than sending off for their goods. The article was so good that it attracted the attention of the merchants, and they highly recommend the loyalty of the editor. One merchant was so favorable impressed with the article that he sat down and wrote a congratulatory letter to the pencilpusher, the letter-head the merchant used had been printed in Louisville, and the return on the envelope was made with a rubber stamp furnished by a Chicago angle grease firm.

Before and After.

For twelve months before they were married she never came down town without seeing him. If she walked one block away he managed to be waiting for her on the corner, smiling like an oyster on the half shell. If she carried a package as weighty as a spool of thread, he took it from her by force for fear she would break a mainspring.
He wanted to call on her every night, and would have done so, if her father had been dead. He just simply existed and that was all, when out of her presence. He was so considerate of her feelings he never went near her after taking a drink until he had thoroughly overhauled and deodorized his breath. Twelve months after that they were married, and if he saw her down town he darted in a screen door to keep her from seeing him. If saw her pass by with a big heavy bundle; but he never went out and offered to carry the load. Perhaps he was already loaded himself. He usually made it home after supper and then went down town on important business. This is what I call before and after taking.—Sam Jones.

The Official Board of the Methodist church voted unanimously to have Rev F. M. Hill appointed Presiding Elder of this district at conference in September which meets in Frankfort. Mr Hill had charge of the church here for four years and has since held several annual revivals and is considered one of the ablest ministers in the Kentucky conference.

Yerkes' Aid Wanted.

A special from Washington Saturday says: Friends of former Internal Revenue Commissioner John W. Yerkes here believe that President Roosevelt wants him to help prosecute trusts, and that the matters were discussed at luncheon with Attorney General Bonaparte at Oyster Bay yesterday. The President and Bonaparte are known to think highly of Mr. Yerkes' legal ability. Trust prosecutions are greatly delayed, and more legal talent is needed by the Department of Justice.
Yerkes' friends cannot explain his Oyster Bay trip on any other theory than that he was offered a special Assistant Attorney General ship. He left here hurriedly Thursday afternoon on crutches, and his recovery is expected to be delayed as a result. It is stated at his apartments that he will return to morrow.

At church Sunday night Gus Travers opened wide his mouth in a prodigious yawn. It was an unlucky act, for, as he did so, he sucked a large bug into his throat. The effect of this mishap upon him was instantaneous and startling.
With eyeballs starting from their sockets and shoulders hunched, he leaped to his feet, clutching wildly at his windpipe. For a brief moment a spasm of violent coughing shook his frame; then, bending forward with outstretched neck, he began to emit loud gurgling sounds and strange guttural whoops. This explosive vocal outburst in connection with such grotesque bodily contortions very naturally attracted the attention of every body in church. It also caused the minister to pause in his sermon and take notice.
At length by a supreme effort, Travers dislodged and ejected the offender and sat down, but not before several persons in his immediate vicinity had got up and walked out of church. It was probably a good thing for Travers, anyway, for it cannot be said that a church is the proper place to yawn in. It is not a dormitory. No man need stretch his mouth there except to sing. This experience of Travers will perhaps stop him from yawning in church, for a while at any rate, and it will also undoubtedly restrain others who may be tempted to such impoliteness in a public assembly.

Circuit Court.

Judge Bell began court on Monday by delivering an able charge to the Grand Jury. All the officers are on hand discharging their duties faithfully.
The court will be busy during the entire term of three weeks. Sheriff Arnold went to Jessamine county, on Tuesday, to summon 50 men out of whom a jury could be found to try Samuel Jennings for killing Mase Miller, which trial will consume the balance of the week. John Simpson, accused of the murder of Bud Casey, was discharged from custody. Few cases for minor offenses have been heard

The following comprise the jurors:

GRAND JURY.

R. A. Beazley, form'n, Jas Gay,
O. J. Hendren, Wm. Duncan,
W. G. Creech, Smith Hurt,
Will Ralston, R. R. Denton, Wesley Bourne, Chas. Poindexter, Cyrus Daly, J. F. Ruble.

PETIT JURY.

P. M. Lackey, Floyd Curtis, Will Royston, Ed Price,
J. A. Cotton, Wm. Lear, Reuben Prather, R. L. Burton, Leslie Bradshaw, J. W. Bryant,
N. H. Bogle, W. K. Leavell,
E. Scott, Kemp Walker,
Ed Cook, Walker Logan,
James Burnsides, Walker Guynn,
J. E. Anderson, Lish Forbes,
Tim Ford, Logan Isom,
J. H. Posey, Frank Holtzclaw.

"Rests."

"There is no music in a rest, but there is the making of music in it."
In our whole life melody the music is broken off here and there by "rests" and we foolishly think we have come to the end of the tune. God sends a time of forced leisure, sickness, disappointed plans, frustrated efforts, and makes a sudden pause in the choral hymn of our lives, and we lament that our voices must be silent, and our part missing in the music which goes up to the ear of the Creator.

How does the musician read the rest? See him beat the time with unvarying count and catch up the next note true and steady as if no breaking place had come in between.

Not without a design does God write the music of our lives. Be it ours to learn the time, and not be dismayed at the "rests." They are not to be stirred over, not to be omitted, not to destroy the melody, not to change the key note. If we look up, God Himself will beat the time for us. With the eye to him, we shall strike the next note full and clear.

If we say sadly to ourselves, "There is no music in a rest," let us not forget "there is the making of music in it." The making of music is often a slow and painful process in this life.

How patiently God works to teach us:

How long He waits for us to learn the lesson!—John Ruskin.

Winchester Democrat: — Saturday night seems to have the happy faculty of making people human; set their hearts to beating softly as they used to do before the world turned them into war drums and jarred them to pieces with tattoos. On Saturday night the ledger closes with a clash, the iron barred vault comes to with a bang, click goes the key in the lock. It is Saturday night and the business man breathes free again. Homeward, ho! The door that has been ajar all the week gently closes behind, and the world is all shut out. Shut out? Shut in, rather. At home are all his treasures after all, and not in the vault and not in the book—save the record in the old family Bible—and not in the bank. Maybe you are a bachelor, frosty and forty. Then, poor fellow, Saturday night is nothing to you, just as you are nothing to any body. Get a wife, blue-eyed or black-eyed, but above all, true-eyed. Get a little home—no matter how little—a sofa just to hold two, or two and a half, in it on a Saturday night and then read this paragraph by the light in your wife's eyes, and thank God and take courage. How many a kiss has been given, how many a curse, how many a caress, how many a look of hate, how many a kind word, how many a promise has been broken, how many a soul lost, how many a loved one lowered into the narrow chamber, how many a babe has gone from earth to heaven, how many a little crib or cradle stands silent now which last Saturday night held the rarest of treasures of the heart. A week is a life. A week is a history. A week marks events of sorrow and gladness which people never hear. Go home to your family, man of business! Go home, you heart wanderer! Go home to the chair that awaits you, wronged wife or life's breakers! Go home to those you love, man of toil, and give one night to the joys and comforts fast flying! Leave your books with complex figures, your dirty shop, your busy store! Rest with those you love, for God only knows what the next Saturday night will bring you! Draw close around the family hearth; Saturday night has awaited your coming in sadness, in tears and silence. Go home to those you love, and as you bask in the loved presence and meet to return the loved embrace of your hearts' pets, strive to be a better man, and bless God for giving his weary children so dear a stepping stone in the river to the eternal, as Saturday night.

PAINT LICK.

The farmers are rejoicing over the fine rain.

Mr John Terry, who has been sick for some time is better.

Mr Joe Wyley is not doing any good. He is not able to sit up yet.

Miss Margaret Pullin is visiting Miss Mary Engleman, at McCreary.

Mr Dan Burchell had a very valuable mare killed by the train last Thursday.

Mr W J Gillespie, who has been sick for quite awhile, is improving very slowly.

Mr W A Anderson is quite sick at Mr Wm Wallace's. Drs Snowden and Mays are waiting on him.

There will be a new butcher shop started up in a few days. It will be run by Mr W P Anderson, of Cartersville.

W Fish, who is a candidate for County Clerk, of Madison county, is meeting with great success. He says he will win the race.

"Everybody Should Know" says CG Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo, "that Bucklen's Arica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles. I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Guaranteed by McRoberts Druggist 25¢.

Ball Bros., of Woodford county, are showing their faith in their horse, Montgomery Chief, in a most substantial way. They are offering $250 in two special premiums for best 1907 foal of Montgomery Chief and for best foal of any age of Montgomery Chief, at the Kentucky State Fair.

The concerts daily at the Kentucky State Fair by Natello and his premier band of fifty all-star artists from the "Land of Music" should prove an announcement that should strike joy to the hearts of everyone at all musically inclined.

A DOZEN HUNDRED.

NUMBER OF CLASSES AT KENTUCKY STATE FAIR.

PRIZES AGGREGATE $25,000.

Every Department Will Be Filled With the Cream of Displays From Other Fairs.

Fairs—international, national, state county and municipal—have been held almost since civilization had its beginning, and passing years have not only not dimmed their luster but have served to make it more brilliant. At no time perhaps in the history of Kentucky have there been so many county fairs as have been held or will be held in the state during 1907. The number has grown to more than fifty. These county fairs serve to draw all classes closer together and it is fitting that they should form the spokes of the big hub which is known as the Kentucky State Fair.

The State Board of Agriculture, early in maturing the plans for this year's exhibition, which will be held in Louisville, September 16 to 21, arranged to have personal representatives at all of these fairs. These representatives have carried with them catalogues of exhibits and premiums, and attractive advertising matter. At every place they have met a most cordial welcome. Exhibitors, both of live stock and in other departments, were solicited and it is in no sense an exaggeration to say that the cream of the exhibits of every county fair will meet in competition at the Kentucky State Fair.

At the September exhibition, the competition will be for prizes that aggregate $25,000 in cash. The classification covers horses, mules, jack stock, beef and dairy cattle, swine, sheep, goats, poultry, colts, dogs, pigeons, tobacco, field and grain, melons and vegetables, plants and flowers, woman's work, children's work and table luxuries.

There are 1,175 different rings in which good money is offered, while there are a total of over 300 different lots. The horse money is divided among horses suitable for light harness, five-gaited saddlers, roadsters, combined harness and five-gaited saddlers, American carriage, three-gaited, plantation saddlers, runabouts, high steppers, Shetland ponies, thoroughbreds and what are classed as fine horses. The mule premiums are most elaborate on pairs and single horse and single mare mules, while good money is offered on jacks and jennies.

In beef cattle, the classification is complete on Short-horns, Herefords, Polled Durhams, Aberdeen-Angus and Red Polls. Most attractive premiums are offered in the dairy cattle department for Jerseys, Holstein-Friesians, Ayrshires, and Guernseys.

The swine department includes Berkshires, Duroc-Jerseys, Poland-Chinas, Chester Whites, Tamworths, Yorkshires, Hampshires, etc.

Yorks, Shropshires, Cotswolds, South Downs, American Merinos, Oxford Downs, Hampshire and Dorsets. Interesting classifications are arranged for bucks and does in the Angora Goat Department.

The poultry premium list covers every known fowl in which this section of the country is interested and the same is true of the pigeon department.

Recognizing the great interest that farmers are displaying in the Collie Dog, as the successor of the Shepherd, a department is given to the former and some very handsome money offered.

The departments for vegetables and melons, tobacco, field seed and grain, cover premiums that will appeal to all who are growers of these products.

In horticulture there are scores of awards in cash to be made on apples, peaches, pears, grapes, etc.

Plants and flowers are not neglected and the money offered should prove a great inducement both to the amateur with the hothouse, and to the professional florist.

In no department is there a more interesting collection of premiums than in that set aside for woman's work, children's work and table luxuries.

It is confidently expected that farm implements and machinery will be shown to a much larger extent than ever before at a Kentucky State Fair.

Ball Bros., of Woodford county, are showing their faith in their horse,

Montgomery Chief, in a most substantial way. They are offering $250 in two special premiums for best 1907 foal of Montgomery Chief and for best foal of any age of Montgomery Chief, at the Kentucky State Fair.

The concerts daily at the Kentucky

State Fair by Natello and his premier band of fifty all-star artists from the "Land of Music" should prove an announcement that should strike joy to the hearts of everyone at all musically inclined.

of course, when even the thought of clothes is a burden. But no matter how hot it is, you've got to wear them.

Have them as thin as you can; if you're not provided with thin clothes, we have some for you; the kind the wind blows through.

They're Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; never too light or too thin to be all-wool and carefully tailored. They'll keep shape.

The prices are as thin as the goods; very light; almost nothing to them.

THE Whitaker Automatic Gate.
Patented August 22, 1905
BY NATHANIEL WHITAKER
of Richmond, Madison County, Kentucky.

The Whitaker Gate is the best.
1st It is made of first class material.
2nd, It is stock proof.
3rd, It has no dead center and will not stop half open when others give trouble.

4th, It has no latch to get out of order.

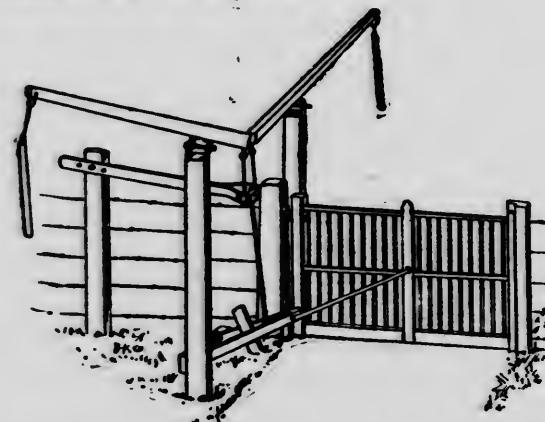

5th, It is a perfect lock when closed.

6th, It has less lever motion than any other Gate.

7th, It will work on any kind of Ground in a curved road and to any kind of post.

8th, It is easier to operate than any other.

9th, because every one that sees it says so.

Read what a few men of the county have to say who are using this gate.
Paint Lick, Ky., August 14th, 1906.

I have one of the Whitaker Automatic Gates that I have used for about seven months, it has not been out of repair in the least, and has not given me one moment's trouble so far, and can't see how it will. I like it splendid.

Respectfully, J. C. Bucker.

After using one of the Whitaker Automatic Gates, can say that it gives perfect satisfaction. I consider it the best gate I have ever seen. Would not do without mine for double the cost of it. Yours truly,

J. B. Woods.

Paint Lick, Ky.
I have owned one of the Whitaker Automatic Gates for some time. I has given perfect satisfaction and swings so nicely and works so easily that any child can operate it. My little four year old boy has no trouble in using this gate.

Very respectfully, S. D. Cochran.

Buckeye, Ky.

I was the first in this county to purchase one of these gates. I am well pleased with it and would not do without it one year for the cost of the gate. I advise every one that needs a good gate to buy one, they are all right.

The Limit of Life.
The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the general accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best help after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by R. E. McRoberts, Druggist. 50c. 1m

DIFFICULT TO STEER A SHIP.

Man at the Helm Works with the Currents Tightly Drawn.

The work of steering a great ship, even with the aid of all the machinery, is much more delicate than one would imagine. The larger and faster the ship the greater is the difficulty. It is not enough to keep the wheel in the same position to keep the ship on her course, for the wind and waves and the currents of the ocean tend constantly to knock the ship off her course. The great wall of steel—for the hull may be 700 feet long and 100 feet high—offers a broad target for the wind and waves.

The art of steering is to humor the ship to these forces and when she is deflected to bring her back quickly to her course. If you could watch the binnacle, especially in bad weather, you would see the needle of the compass constantly shifting from side to side, which means that the great steel prow is not going forward in a perfectly straight line.

The most astonishing thing about the bridge is to find the wheelhouse with all its curtains tightly drawn, as often happens, and the man at the helm steering the boat without seeing ahead at all. At night or even by day, if the light of the binnacle is confusing, the wheelhouse is often completely shut in. The man at the wheel, it is explained, does not need to look ahead. The lookout high up in the "crow's nest" and the officer on watch on the bridge will keep him informed if any object is sighted. The duty of the man at the wheel is to keep the ship on her course. Throughout his watch of four hours he must keep his eyes on the compass and nowhere else.—St. Nicholas.

A progressive farmer in New York state heralds the era of kid glove farming, according to the Technical World Magazine. He has made laziness a success, and can now do his farm work without a backache.

There is a little creek running through his farm. This he has harnessed and forced to run a dynamo, which in turn gives light and heat for the house and outbuildings.

But Mr. Miner was not satisfied with his accomplishment. The hardest task about the farm, the one which everyone most dreaded, was turning the milk separator at a speed of 7,400 revolutions per minute. This had been done by hand.

So Mr. Miner installed a motor which turned the milk separator every morning and evening satisfactorily without any hard labor on the part of the progressive farmer.

The next job to be hitched up to the new horse was turning the big barrel churn. Then came the grindstone, which is the farm hand's bugbear during the harvest season. The millstream was next made to pump the water for household use up to the roof, where there was a large reservoir for storing it.

But wood had to be used for the cookstove, and the sled-length logs had to be cut down, so a circular saw was added to the outfit and a new use was thus found for the electric current.

WHAT IS CATARRH?

Leading Druggists Guarantee a Cure by Hyomei or Will Refund the Money.

Until very recent years, it was thought that catarrh was a disease of the blood, but now modern science has proved that catarrh is a germ disease, and can be cured only by a treatment that will kill the germs and heal the mucous membrane of the nose and throat.

Therefore, when you have catarrh, you can readily see that if you want to cure it, you should use Hyomei, which mediates the air you breathe, thus killing the catarrhal germs and healing the smarting and raw membrane of the passages through the nose and throat. In breathing Hyomei you are really creating your catarrhal trouble with the only natural method, for it will make you breathe as pure, healing and antiseptic as that found on the mountains where the pine forests give off their fragrant and healing balsams.

If there is any doubt in your mind as to the power of Hyomei to cure catarrh, the unusual way in which it is sold should destroy all doubt, as we offer to refund the money should Hyomei fail to benefit.

The complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and a medicine dropper, costs only $1, while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents.
